CEI 2017

EPA Green Power Partner

A Green Power Partner since 2012, Comprehensive Environmental Inc. (CEI) has committed to purchasing Renewable Energy Credits (RECs) to offset electricity use in our offices. CEI is proud to be part of this U.S.

Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

program and is excited to announce that the firm has made an increase in this commitment through the use of wind energy RECs in 2017.

“EPA’s Green Power Partnership commends Comprehensive Environmental Inc., a program partner since 2012 that is now purchasing RECs for 100% of its power use, up from 31% in previous years,” said James Critchfield, Manager of the Green Power Partnership.

The Green Power Partnership recognizes leading organizations across the country that purchase green power generated from environmentally preferable resources such as solar, wind, geothermal, low-impact biomass and low-impact hydro resources.

CEI is an award winning civil and environmental engineering firm incorporated in 1987 serving the U.S Northeast.
