CEI Presents EagleEye Aerobotics™ at NHPWA

On March 2, 2017 CEI staff presented at the New Hampshire Public Works Association (NH PWA) Technical Meeting at the Grappone Conference Center in Concord, NH. This Technical Meeting was an opportunity for education and discussion of important and relevant topics pertaining to public works in NH among the engineering community.

Staff from CEI's Eagle Eye Aerobotics™ Division presented 'Flying High Above the Water Mark – Unmanned Aerial Systems for Water Suppliers'. This presentation focused on the regulatory aspects of sUAS use, piloting, real-time imagery, software and post-processing, and the engineering and scientific analysis of collected data. For more information or a flight demonstration please contact EagleEye Aerobotics™ at 800.725.2550 or visit www.eagleeyeaerobotics.com.

The NHPWA mission is 'to be a highly visible professional organization that provides leadership to enhance the ethical, technical, administrative and educational development of all public works matters throughout the State of New Hampshire with the goal to enhance the overall service provided to the citizens of the State of New Hampshire.' CEI Principal Engineer Nick Cristofori, P.E., serves as the ACEC-NH (American Council of Engineering Companies NH) representative on the NHPWA Board.
