CEI Receives Geotechnical Honors

Comprehensive Environmental Inc. (CEI) is honored to be named by the Zweig White Group as the #1 Geotechnical Firm to Work in its annual ranking of 'Best Firms to Work For' nationwide in 2017. This is the first year geotechnical services has been recognized and CEI is proud to be selected #1 in this category.

Rankings were based on a host of competitive criteria including support for staff professional development and training, employee benefits, firm culture, community service, employee retention, communication, office environment, sustainability, work/life balance, employee recognition, firm growth and work atmosphere.

CEI was also ranked as one of the Best Firms to Work For in the Civil Engineering and Environmental Services categories in 2017, having been honored consecutively since 2010 in these categories.

CEI provides comprehensive civil, environmental and geotechnical engineering services throughout the Northeast.
